EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. Pursuant to MPEP 606.01, the title has been changed to read:

--CLIENT-SERVER CONFERENCE AND USER SEEKING THROUGH A SERVER STORING A LIST COMPRISING ACTIVE CONFERENCE SERVERS AND EXCLUDING
NONACTIVE CONFERENCE SERVERS--

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-10, 12-21, 23-25 and 27-30 are allowed. Claims 11, 22 and 25 were previously cancelled.

3. The following is an Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance:

In interpreting the claims, in light of the specification and the applicant's arguments, the Examiner finds the claimed invention to be patentably distinct from the prior art of record.

Larson et al, US Pat. No. 5,907,324, and Catanzaro et al., US Pat. No. 6,438,111

B1, teach the invention substantially as claimed. Larson-Catanzaro teach conferencing system wherein a connection router stores a list of active conference servers used to query and locate a specific conference. The connection router of Catanzaro substantially performs the functions of the claimed "server of the second type".

However, the prior art of record fails to teach or suggest individually or in combination a system wherein "a server of a second type disposed to manage data of a second type including storing a list of the at least one servers of the first type and excluding servers that do not maintain at least one conference from the list." The Examiner finds the applicant's arguments on page 9, line 12 – page 10, line 23 of the amendment filed November 14, 2003 (paper no. 19) to be persuasive. The applicant argued in substance that the prior art of record does not teach a system wherein the server of the second type stores a list of servers of the first type and excludes servers that do not maintain at least one conference from the list. The applicant also distinguished the sever of the second type as claimed to the connection router of the prior art of record.

Dependent claims 2-9, 12-19, 21, 23-25 and 27-30 are allowed because of the combination of other limitations and the limitations listed above.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
